SERVICE & STEWARDSHIP

Volunteer initiatives, environmental activities, recycling events, and partnerships that strengthen the community.

A tradition carried forward together

Founded by nine women in 1947, CWC is an all-volunteer organization whose fundraising and service connect generations of community-minded people. In 2025–26, the Club reported $18,620 in giving across 22 organizations and causes, including two $2,500 scholarships.

As we approach the Club's 80th anniversary in March 2027, your support can help extend this legacy to the next generation.

A PARTNERSHIP THAT GIVES BACK

Your contribution. Our community.

Choose a giving level that reflects your commitment to Coronado. Every gift strengthens the Club's ability to respond to community needs through its philanthropy and service.
